1. OPENING DEVOTION – Gordon Snyder: Who sent that messenger? When speaking to a fellow passenger on his Columbia River Cruise, Gordon remembered a time when God sent him a messenger. It was a chance meeting when he received advice for his career path. In Vietnam, Gordon had 6 months left and was thinking, "I have to find a job when I get home." Gordon had a chemistry degree and was talking with a Captain who had been an engineer before and suggested getting a master's degree in management. The rest is history. Now, think about how many of us have had that moment when God has sent us a messenger.
